

SOUTH CAROLINA STATE UNIVERSITY

THOMAS E. MILLER SOCIETY

Named in honor of Thomas Ezekiel Miller, the first president of the Colored, Normal, Industrial, Agricultural and Mechanical College of South Carolina from 1896-1911, the Society recognizes cumulative philanthropy from individuals, couples, organizations, associations, corporations and foundations who demonstrate commitment to the University and higher education by sharing their resources.

Thomas E. Miller Society Induction Ceremony and Breakfast

Sunday, March 2, 2008

9:00 a.m.

Robert S. Evans Walnut Room
South Carolina State University

*Thomas E. Miller Society
Induction Ceremony*

Dr. Leonard A. McIntyre
Interim President
Presiding

Welcome..... Dr. John M. Berry
Assistant Vice President for Development

Occasion..... Dr. McIntyre

Blessing..... The Reverend Devia Phinisee
Campus Minister
Orangeburg Presbyterian Student Association

~ Breakfast ~

Introduction of Honorees..... Dr. Jackie Epps, '69
Interim Vice President for Institutional Advancement

Pinning..... Dr. McIntyre
Ms. Lillian Adderson, '81
Assistant Vice President for Alumni Relations

Closing Remarks..... Dr. McIntyre

2008 Thomas E. Miller Society Inductee

Dr. Harold Powell

2006 Inductees

Mr. Lewis A. Berry, '66

The Honorable James E. and Mrs. Emily England Clyburn, '61, '61

Colonel (Retired) and Mrs. Alfred P. (Parniest) Glover, '53, '54

Mrs. Margaret Wade Lesesne, '51

Mr. Robert S. Porcher, III '92

Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. (Pearl A.) Tourville, Sr.

2007 Inductees

Mrs. Hattie P. Hunter

Dr. Samuel D. Stroman