Today, South Carolina State University welcomes home her loyal sons and daughters.

The South Carolina State University Office of Alumni Relations is proud to sponsor the 2009 Annual Alumni Honors and Awards Banquet. By doing so, we provide a forum for the delivery of support and love to our Alma Mater. The featured classes for this year are the Golden Class of 1959, and the Silver Class of 1984. Also spotlighted are the classes of 1934, 1939, 1944, 1949, 1954, 1959, 1964, and 1969.

The Banquet also gives honor to the outstanding alumni chapters and to individuals who have distinguished themselves during the year. We give them the recognition they so richly deserve for their productive efforts on behalf of our Association and our University.

Whether it's called May Weekend, Alumni Weekend or Reunion Weekend, the weekend of May 8-10, 2009 can best be described as a Family Reunion Weekend. A momentous occasion – when Families, Alumni and Friends return home. It is a time to reminisce about the good ole' days at our Alma Mater; a time to renew old acquaintances; a time to reflect on past experiences; and yes a time to give back! Whatever this weekend means to you, please know that President Cooper and the entire University Family are happy and proud to welcome you back to South Carolina State University! As the saying goes, there is no place like home – Welcome Home!

Office of Alumni Relations

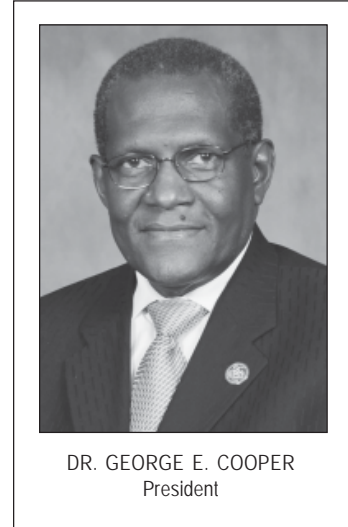

MESSAGE FROM PRESIDENT COOPER

Dear Honorees:

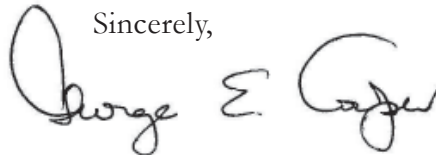

I am pleased to express my appreciation to the Alumni of South Carolina State University for your unwavering support of Alma Mater. I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of you for your support and contributions to an institution that has given so much. Of all the wonderful benefits we offer to our students, your support is one of the most important as it provides much needed financial support.

Having many of you grace our campus during May Weekend gives us an opportunity to experience first-hand what the future of current students should look like. We are very fortunate to have you as Alumni who serve as ambassadors for the institution.

I hope that during May Weekend, you take away a renewed sense of our legacy, history, and heritage of South Carolina State University. Again, welcome home and we extend best wishes for a wonderful and enjoyable weekend.

Sincerely,

George E. Cooper
President

Dear Alumni and Friends,

It is with great pride that members of the Executive Committee welcome you to the 2009 Alumni Honors and Awards Banquet. This affair is the highlight of May Weekend and brings eleven reunion classes together to share in memories of South Carolina State University.

Alumni, I ask for your participation in the national association. For those present tonight, I ask that you make a promise to yourself to become a financial member and assist in growing our association into one of greater strength and support for “Our University”. South Carolina State stands at a pivotal time in its history, and it is an alumni responsibility to ensure that its greatness continues.

MS.PATRICIA B. LOTT
SCSUNAA President

It has been with esteem honor to serve as your alumni president. Four years ago the Executive Committee and I created a new vision for the Association. We are proud that we were successful in accomplishing the majority of our goals and established new horizons for our membership. May the legacy of this team be remembered for years to come.

Again, I ask for your participation in the association and encourage others to do likewise.

With Enthusiasm,

Patricia B. Lott
