A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Honorees:

Today, it gives me great pleasure and honor to salute you on the occasion of your retirement from South Carolina State University. Your service has been an integral part of fulfilling our land-grant mission and it is greatly appreciated. Your loyalty and dedication to this institution over the years has added immensely to its ultimate success.

As we reflect on our history, we acknowledge that your individual and collective expertise came together seamlessly for the good of the whole. No matter how insignificant you may have thought of certain tasks, it was all quite significant to the successful operation of SC State University.

On the occasion of your retirement from our University, we salute you and thank you for all you have done. You have touched the lives of many and assisted in the delivery of strong programs during your tenure. You have now become a member of another distinguished group at the institution—our beloved retirees.

Thank you for your contributions to South Carolina State University and we wish you the very best in your retirement.

Sincerely,

South Carolina State University honors its employees for years of service upon retirement from the institution. This annual tradition is hosted by President and Mrs. Cooper and is held at the end of the academic year.

~A WISH FOR OUR RETIREES~

May retirement bring you pleasure, contentment, and the time for enjoying all the activities that eluded you during your years of dedicated service.

It's your retirement; you've earned it, so enjoy it!
