MESSAGE FROM PRESIDENT COOPER

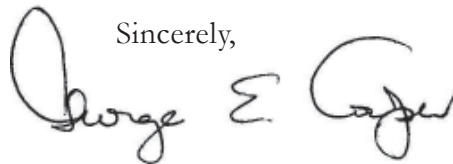

April 6, 2010

To Our Honor Students:

Today, it gives me great pleasure to salute and congratulate South Carolina State University's honor scholars during the annual Honors and Awards Convocation. Based upon your scholastic success, you exemplify the university's driving force of excellence and your presence here today signifies that you have made notable academic achievements. You have each earned the title of an SC State University honor student which is a very significant accomplishment.

At SC State, we pride ourselves on producing individuals who go on to make indelible marks on society. Not only are you among these outstanding individuals, but you are indeed leading the way. I congratulate you on this wonderful honor and ask that you not rest on your laurels, but continue to excel academically. You make SC State University very proud.

Sincerely,

George E. Cooper, Ph.D.
President

*H*onors and Awards Convocation

This occasion has been designated as an appropriate time to honor students who have distinguished themselves in scholarship and service. Such distinctions are manifested through the attainment of Presidential Pins, academic scholarships and induction into academic honor societies.

*P*residential Scholar Awards

The Presidential Scholar Awards were initiated in 1977 by Dr. M. Maceo Nance, Jr., the fifth President of South Carolina State University. The underlying objectives for establishing the awards were (1) to recognize students who demonstrate academic excellence; (2) to encourage those who demonstrate academic excellence to maintain and achieve higher levels of academic pursuits; (3) to provide symbolic recognition via the Presidential Pin, which would be significant to those who earn the award and to those who view the same; and (4) to provide an incentive to all students to achieve academic excellence. This established tradition at the University continues to preserve our legacy.

A recipient of the Presidential Scholar Award must be a full-time, regularly enrolled, degree-seeking undergraduate at the University. To qualify for a gold pin, freshmen and transfer students must have averages of 3.94 to 4.00. Pins are awarded based upon the following criteria:

BRONZE	3.00-3.49	Cumulative grade point average (GPA)
SILVER	3.50-3.74	Cumulative grade point average (GPA)
GOLD	3.75-4.00	Cumulative grade point average (GPA)

Students whose enrollment status are reduced to part-time as a result of participation in special programs will be evaluated on their performance during the fall semester of the year of the award and the prior spring or summer full-time enrollment.

ROY I. JONES, ED.D.

LECTURER AND EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR FOR THE EUGENE T. MOORE SCHOOL OF EDUCATION'S
CALL ME MISTER PROGRAM
CLEMSON UNIVERSITY

Dr. Roy Jones is Lecturer and Executive Director for the Eugene T. Moore School of Education's Call Me MISTER Program at Clemson University. The mission of the Call Me MISTER (acronym for Mentors Instructing Students Toward Effective Role Models) National Initiative is to increase the pool of available teachers from a broader more diverse background particularly among the Nation's lowest performing elementary schools.

Over the past nine years, since the program's inception in South Carolina, it has placed nearly 60 certified African American males primarily in elementary and middle public school classrooms. Several of the programs more recent graduates come from South Carolina State University. There are now over 250 pre service teachers enrolled among a network of 30 colleges and universities in seven states with a Call Me MISTER program operating.

Call Me MISTER has received accolades from a broad spectrum of national media and high profile celebrities to include, USA Today, Boston Globe, Washington Post, Atlanta Journal, ABC World News, National Public Radio (NPR), Associated Press, Diverse Issues in Education, Blackamerica Web, Oprah Winfrey, Bill Cosby and education journals such as Education Week, Teachersofcolor and Instructor magazine. Dr. Jones was also named the 2009 recipient of the American Association of Blacks in Higher Education's Pacesetter Award.

Previously, Dr. Jones was Associate Professor in the Division of Education at Claflin University in Orangeburg, S.C. Dr. Jones served as chair of the Division of Education during the period Claflin received the distinction of becoming the first historically black private institution in the State to receive the National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE) accreditation. From 1990 to 1998, Dr. Jones served as Director of Employment for the Charleston County School District and was responsible for the district's teacher and classified recruitment programs. He has successfully implemented and directed numerous programs in higher education throughout his career. He has presented countless workshops, seminars, forums, and panel discussions surrounding racial and cultural issues in education.

Dr. Jones received his Doctorate from the University of Georgia, Masters from Atlanta University and Bachelors from the University of Massachusetts, Amherst.

*L*ift Ev'ry Voice and Sing

*Lift ev'ry voice and sing,
Till earth and heaven ring,
Ring with the harmonies of Liberty;
Let our rejoicing rise,
High as the listening skies,
Let it resound loud as the rolling sea.
Sing a song full of the faith that the dark past has taught us,
Sing a song full of the hope that the present has brought us;
Facing the rising sun of our new day begun,
Let us march on till victory is won.*

*Stoney the road we trod,
Bitter the chast'ning rod,
Felt in the days when hope unborn had died;
Yet with a steady beat,
Have not our weary feet,
Come to the place for which our fathers sighed?
We have come over a way that with tears has been watered,
We have come, treading our path through the blood of the slaughtered,
Out from the gloomy past, Till now we stand at last
Where the white gleam of our bright star is cast.*

*God of our weary years,
God of our silent tears,
Thou who has brought us thus far on the way;
Thou who has by Thy might,
Lead us into the light,
Keep us forever in the path, we pray.
Lest our feet stray from the places, Our God, where we met Thee,
Lest our hearts, drunk with the wine of the world, we forget Thee,
Shadowed beneath Thy hand, may we forever stand,
True to our GOD, True to our native land.*

*A*lma Mater

*Sing the praise of Alma Mater
Let us rally to her calls
Lift our voices, send them ringing
Thru the groves and classic halls.*

*Hail! Hail! Dear Alma Mater
Hail! Hail! Dear S.C.C.
We'll defend and honor
Love and cherish thee.*

*We are loyal sons and daughters
Proud to own the name we bear,
For the truths that thou hast taught us
Ready all to do or dare.*

--Robert Shaw Wilkinson
(Second President, 1911-1932)

Words written by Dr. Robert Shaw Wilkinson, second president of South Carolina State College. Mr. Ted D. Phillips, an alumnus, wrote the music.
