OCEANSIDE COLLEGIATE ACADEMY PRESENTATION (OCA) (ATTACHMENT 2)

Chairman Way asked the President to enlighten the Trustees on the charter school. President Evans shared that the University became a charter school sponsor/authorizer in 2014 and is the first institution in higher education in the State of South Carolina to be a sponsor/authorizer. As an authorizer, schools throughout the State of South Carolina could submit an application to the institution. There is a process, the prospective school would: 1) submit an application, 2) application is reviewed by the SCSU Review Committee, 3) the Review Committee would meet with the prospective school group regarding any concerns, 4) a presentation is made before the Board of Trustee by the prospective school, 5) Trustees deliberate in Executive Session, 6) a decision is announced in open session.

Dr. Kayla Audette from SC Department of Education stated the Board would be responsible for ensuring that the charter school is following federal guidelines on spending on items like special education. Dr. Marvin Amsdorff, Board Chairman of OCA and Ms. Traci Bryant-Riches of Pinnacle Character Academies steered the presentation. Ms. Bryant-Riches introduced OCA Board members and staffers from Pinnacle and Gray Collegiate Academy. OCA School would be managed by Pinnacle, which is an Educational Management Organization. Gray Collegiate Academy will serve as a sister school to OCA and is currently partnering with the University for in dual enrollment credits. OCA operations will begin the school year 2016-2017 in Mt. Pleasant, SC. The institution would receive 2 percent of the charter school operating budget plus payment for supervising the federal dollars. President Evans was assured that a committee headed by Dr. Albert Haywood would be accountable for overseeing that the charter school is following federal guidelines. The Board of Trustees have the authority to recommend corrections or withdraw the charter, if the school is not following federal guidelines.  See Attachment.
