SC State Alumnus Nominated Brigadier General

By Antia Dawkins

Since its establishment in 1947, SC State University’s Army ROTC has developed 15 general officers. Following in the footsteps of these 15 gentlemen, Col. Bruce Crawford was recently nominated for the leading position of brigadier general. Crawford was truly humbled when he received the great news.

“Being selected to join the general officer ranks has truly been a humbling experience, especially when you take into account the groundwork and efforts of so many people over the last 25 years that have made this all possible,” says Crawford. “My initial reaction was the recognition that my family and I have truly been blessed, based on the realization that there are many qualified officers who could have been selected,” declares Crawford. (Click here for full story).

SC State University’s Extended School Year Program Uses Activities to Aid with Speech Deficiencies

By Tameka Kenan

Screams of joy could be heard for blocks by SC State students and citizens of the community who live near the Old Dawn Center located on the campus of SC State University. For a moment, the institution’s Speech Pathology and Audiology Program seemed to turn into a playground for children ranging from ages three to 10. On this summer day, the children were amused by Smokey the Bear. They watched intently as a video was shown on the prevention of wildfires, and they were happy to receive goodie bags as each student had the chance to meet Smokey the Bear. (Click here for full story).

Preparation Means Opportunity for Recent SC State Graduates

By Tameka Kenan

Twenty-one year old Brittany Burgess can talk for hours about computer science. Although she often forgets to put the information in layman’s terms, one can easily tell that Burgess is adamant about pursuing a career in the field. When asked, “why are you so excited about computer science,” the SC State alumna answers, “since childhood I’ve had a fascination with the computer science field and now I finally get the opportunity to have a career in something that I enjoy.” It’s also a huge incentive that Burgess will begin work in the field at the end of this month. (Click here for full story).

Calendar of Events

August
17 Classes Begin
22 Last Day for Drop/Add

September
01 at Central Michigan; Mt. Pleasant, MI
10 at Bethune-Cookman; Daytona Beach, FL
17 at Indiana; Bloomington, IN
24 SC State Univ. vs. Delaware State

October
01 at Norfolk State; Norfolk, VA
08 SC State vs. NC Central (Homecoming)
15 SC State vs. Georgia State
22 SC State vs. Florida A&M
29 at Howard; Washington, DC

ATTENTION!!!

If you or someone you know would like to be added to the e-newsletter mailing list, please contact Tameka Kenan at tkenan@scsu.edu.

REGISTRATION for Fall 2011 at SC State

Click here for important dates regarding advisement and registration.