Writing Across the Curriculum (WAC)

Faculty Responsibilities

- ❖ Instructors must include at least one WAC Objective in their course syllabi.
- ❖ Instructors must indicate how WAC assignments will be evaluated.
- ❖ Instructors must indicate in course syllabi that a certain percentage of the final grade for each course will be derived from assessment of the WAC assignment. The minimum percentage must not be less than five percent.
- ❖ In general, instructors must provide corrective feedback on all written assignments collected from students, including those not specifically associated with the WAC Program.
- ❖ Students must be given time to revise writing, if necessary, according to the teacher's suggestions.
- ❖ Teachers must evaluate the WAC final product and assign a letter grade.
- ❖ Revised and graded student papers must be submitted to the departmental WAC liaison no later than Friday of the third week following mid-term examinations.
- ❖ Instructors must return graded WAC assignments to students at least one week before the final examination period.
