

FAMILY AND CONSUMER SCIENCES BUSINESS CHILD DEVELOPMENT

RELATED CAREERS

Related Career Opportunity	Salary Potential (National Average)
Child Care Center Director	$49,462 - $77,417
Preschool Educator	$20,890 - $71,370
Child Life Specialist	$39,234 - $45,949
Family Life Educator	$30,888 - $60,008
Child Psychologist	$41,850 - $92,250
Child and Family Mental Health Counselor	$25,660 - $55,810
Marriage and Family Therapist	$23,460 - $65,080

The goal of the Child Development program is to equip students with the knowledge and skills, which serves as a basis of in-depth comprehension of the needs of children 0-8 years. The programmatic goal of the curricula endeavor to prepare students to effectively demonstrate implementation of instruction for preschoolers as well as develop effective teaching strategies for parenting to individuals, community groups, public and private education, professional and business sectors. Students also have the opportunity to explore related career selection prevailing workplace demands.

Important Links:

Child Development Curriculum Sheet

Description of Child Development Courses

The Child Development Learning Center

FAMILY AND CONSUMER SCIENCES HOMEPAGE

For More Information Contact

Dr. Bonita Manson
210 Staley Hall
Office # 803-536-7179
E-Mail: bmanson@scsu.edu