Graduate Assistantships in Transportation Engineering

Job Description

The Master of Science in Transportation program at South Carolina State University has several graduate research assistantships available for students interested in pursuing a master’s Degree in transportation. Each graduate research assistant will receive a stipend and a full tuition scholarship. They will work closely with faculty members to conduct research in the areas of transportation planning, logistics, traffic flow theory, traffic control and simulation, traffic safety, alternative transportation fuels and environment, etc. Students from the following disciplines are encouraged to apply: Accounting, Economics, Management, Marketing, Psychology, Sociology, Engineering, Engineering Technology, Computer Science, Biological Science, Physical Science, Political Science and Criminal Justice.

Detailed application instructions are available at the following website: http://www.scsu.edu/files/SCSU%20Graduate%20School%20Application%20New.pdf

For further questions, contact:
Dr. Judith Mwakalonge, Assoc. Prof. at jmwakalo@scsu.edu (803) 536-8321
Dr. Stanley Ihekweazu, Dean at sihekwea@scsu.edu - (803) 536-7133

For Admissions, contact:
Mr. Curtis J. Foskey at cfoskey@scsu.edu (803) 536-8419
Dr. Frederick M.G. Evans at fevans6@scsu.edu (803) 536-7133

For full consideration, application materials should be received before October 30 (5:00 PM EST) for spring semester and June 15 (5:00 PM EST) for fall semester.

For consideration, candidates must meet the following requirements:
1. Earned a bachelor's degree from an accredited institution
2. Gain full acceptance to the Master of Science in Transportation Program at SC State University
3. Have a GPA of 3.0 or above in previous undergraduate course work or a GPA of 3.2 or above in previous graduate course work
4. Be registered as a full-time student

SOUTH CAROLINA STATE UNIVERSITY
300 College Street, Northeast
Orangeburg, South Carolina 29117